

Irene Jane Carmody

April 10, 1957 - August 10, 2026

Roanoke, Virginia

Irene Jane Carmody of Roanoke died on August 10, 2026 at the age of 69. She was born on April 10, 1957 in a Irish-American family that measured love in finished chores. She grew up believing that showing up was the first craft.

She filed papers that held whole families without filing people as obstacles. A file stamp that never smeared meant privacy was not optional. Colleagues still mention a file stamp that never smeared.

She married James in 1979. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter and two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After James died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. She preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Roanoke was home enough that she never rehearsed an introduction. The Sunday call still has a time slot in the house.

Services

A memorial gathering in Roanoke with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
