

Isaiah Jerome Pritchard

November 17, 1935 - August 25, 2026

Charleston, South Carolina

Isaiah Jerome Pritchard died in Charleston on August 25, 2026. He was 90. Born in Charleston on November 17, 1935, with Gullah/Geechee coast roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He graded leaf with hands that knew seasons. A soft grading glove outlasted fashion; buyers trusted his eye more than moisture meters. Colleagues still mention a grading glove soft as cloth.

He married Eula in 1961. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised three children through public schools and ordinary weather. After Eula died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Charleston, among streets he never needed to explain. The key is still under the same brick.

Services

A memorial gathering in Charleston with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
