

Joyce Sue Rohrer

December 7, 1936 - August 27, 2025

Beaumont, Texas

Family and neighbors in Beaumont mark the death of Joyce Sue Rohrer on August 27, 2025. She was 88. Born December 7, 1936 in Beaumont, carrying Chinese-American stories that arrived without footnotes. She learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

She packed hides that had to look inevitable on pallets. A hide salt packer apron clip taught that shortcuts show. Colleagues still mention a hide salt packer apron clip.

She and Earl married in 1963 and raised two sons and a daughter without needing an audience. After Earl's death in 2018, she held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Beaumont, on streets that already knew her pace. The porch still expects a returning step.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Beaumont. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
