

Kathleen Sue OBannon

March 15, 1947 - September 2, 2026

Wichita, Kansas

Kathleen Sue OBannon died in Wichita on September 2, 2026. She was 79. Born on March 15, 1947, raised among Irish-American manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She routed fear and good news through a headset that became part of her posture. Families called her when they did not know who else to ask. Colleagues still mention a headset she wore like a second hairdo.

She married Patrick in 1969. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Patrick died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Wichita, among streets she never needed to explain. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

A memorial gathering in Wichita with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
