

Laila Noor Haddad

September 3, 1949 - August 28, 2026

Fairbanks, Alaska

Laila Noor Haddad died in Fairbanks on August 28, 2026. She was 76. Born on September 3, 1949, with Lebanese-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She counted, labeled, and double-checked with a care that kept wards safe. A pill-count tray polished smooth was her quiet instrument. Colleagues still mention a pill-count tray polished smooth.

She married Omar in 1974. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Omar died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a porch light left on for anyone walking home late. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Fairbanks, among streets she never needed to explain. The chair by the window still holds the shape of a habit.

Services

A memorial gathering in Fairbanks with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
