

Lester Dale Robicheaux

July 23, 1932 - June 27, 2026

Erie, Pennsylvania

Lester Dale Robicheaux of Erie died on June 27, 2026 at the age of 93. Born in Erie on July 23, 1932; Cherokee cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He caught mornings into readiness before the first truck arrived. A catcher crate chalk mark outlasted two camp bosses. Colleagues still mention a catcher crate chalk mark.

In 1958 he married Patricia. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and two children walked to school in weather that did not care. When Patricia died in 2019, he kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a jumper cable offered before the tow truck was dialed. Mornings were his favorite shift at home. He died in Erie, on streets that already knew his pace. The calendar still has a circle on payday.

Services

Services in Erie will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
