

Lester Lynn Yeargin

September 26, 1932 - June 19, 2014

Tulsa, Oklahoma

Tulsa lost Lester Lynn Yeargin on June 19, 2014. He was 81. He was born on September 26, 1932 in a Czech-American family that measured love in finished chores. He grew up believing that showing up was the first craft.

He worked decks that argued with weather and schedules. A dredge deck line splice kit preferred work over speeches. Colleagues still mention a dredge deck line splice kit.

He and Frances married in 1956 and raised two children without needing an audience. After Frances's death in 2007, he held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember covered dishes that arrived without a speech. Mornings were his favorite shift at home. He died in Tulsa, on streets that already knew his pace. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. His life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Tulsa. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
