

Lois Ruth Mulholland

July 20, 1948 - May 9, 2025

Amarillo, Texas

Friends in Amarillo remember Lois Ruth Mulholland, who died on May 9, 2025 at 76. Born in Amarillo on July 20, 1948; Polish-American cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She packed hides that had to look inevitable on pallets. A hide salt packer apron clip taught that shortcuts show. Colleagues still mention a hide salt packer apron clip.

She and John married in 1975 and raised three children without needing an audience. After John's death in 2018, she held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember snow shoveled past the corner that was not required. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Amarillo, among streets she never needed to explain. The calendar still has a circle on payday.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Amarillo. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
