

Lorraine Rae Vuillemin

April 18, 1944 - August 13, 2026

Eugene, Oregon

Friends in Eugene remember Lorraine Rae Vuillemin, who died on August 13, 2026 at 82. Born in Eugene on April 18, 1944; Jamaican-American cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She carried fittings that kept plants from guessing. A pipe-rack tag spool hung with the house keys; both meant care. Colleagues still mention a pipe-rack tag spool.

She and Walter married in 1971 and raised four children without needing an audience. After Walter's death in 2019, she held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember snow shoveled past the corner that was not required. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Eugene, among streets she never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Eugene. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
