

Louise Rose Ibrahim

October 7, 1951 - August 19, 2026

Florence, South Carolina

Family and neighbors in Florence mark the death of Louise Rose Ibrahim on August 19, 2026. She was 74. Born on October 7, 1951 and raised among Sudanese-American manners that never needed a speech. From the start, she treated promises like tools: keep them sharp, do not lend them lightly.

She carried samples that kept plants from guessing. A lab sample cooler key hung with the house keys; both meant care. Colleagues still mention a lab sample cooler key.

She married Kenneth in 1976. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters and a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Kenneth died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember the radio low on a Saturday while repairs got done. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Florence, on streets that already knew her pace. The work gloves still keep the shape of a grip.

Services

A memorial gathering in Florence with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
