

Luther Dale Grieshop

March 7, 1945 - November 12, 2025

Shreveport, Louisiana

Luther Dale Grieshop, 80, of Shreveport, died on November 12, 2025. Born in Shreveport on March 7, 1945; Polish-American cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. He grew up believing that showing up was the first craft.

He ran twine that decided winters for farms that did not write novels. A baler twine knife on a nail preferred work over speeches. Colleagues still mention a baler twine knife on a nail.

He and Ruth married in 1972 and raised a son and a daughter without needing an audience. After Ruth's death in 2018, he held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember snow shoveled past the corner that was not required. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Shreveport, among streets he never needed to explain. The lunch pail still waits by the back door.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. His life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Shreveport. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
