

Maren Elise Pike

September 14, 1948 - August 9, 2026

Provo, Utah

Maren Elise Pike died in Provo on August 9, 2026. She was 77. Born in Provo on September 14, 1948, into a Danish-American household that treated work as a language. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She tracked cars the way some people track weather. A punch-clock key on a ring opened more than doors; it opened trust. Colleagues still mention a punch clock key on a ring.

She married Niels in 1972. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Niels died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember covered dishes that arrived without a speech. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Provo, among streets she never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Provo with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
