

Marjorie Lou Oberholtzer

October 12, 1949 - August 21, 2026

Portland, Maine

Marjorie Lou Oberholtzer of Portland died on August 21, 2026 at the age of 76. Born on October 12, 1949, with Cuban-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She packed crates that would not embarrass the exhibits upstairs. A crate stencil brush cleaned each shift kept school groups moving kindly. Colleagues still mention a crate stencil brush cleaned each shift.

She married Carl in 1971. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters and a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Carl died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. She preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Portland was home enough that she never rehearsed an introduction. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Portland with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
