

Marvin Jay Guglielmi

July 15, 1949 - July 23, 2026

Chattanooga, Tennessee

Marvin Jay Guglielmi died in Chattanooga on July 23, 2026. He was 77. He was born on July 15, 1949 in a Chilean-American family that measured love in finished chores. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He graded chile and crews without confusing either for the other. A chile grade paddle stayed clean enough to trust. Colleagues still mention a chile grade paddle.

He married Margaret in 1971. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Margaret died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who swept the sidewalk past the property line when weather had been unfair. He preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Chattanooga was home enough that he never rehearsed an introduction. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Chattanooga with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
