

Maurice Dean Remington

January 27, 1952 - August 11, 2026

Paducah, Kentucky

Maurice Dean Remington of Paducah died on August 11, 2026 at the age of 74. He was born on January 27, 1952 in a English-American family that measured love in finished chores. He learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

He watched pressure charts that turned harvest into shelf life. A retort chart pencil stub lived in his shirt pocket like a conscience. Colleagues still mention a retort chart pencil stub.

He married Margaret in 1974. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised three daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Margaret died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. Mornings were his favorite shift at home. He died in Paducah, on streets that already knew his pace. The calendar still has a circle on payday.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. His life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A memorial gathering in Paducah with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
