

Mildred Faye Underkoffler

February 21, 1948 - October 16, 2025

Akron, Ohio

In Akron, on October 16, 2025, Mildred Faye Underkoffler died at 77. Born on February 21, 1948 and raised among Swedish-American manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She washed wool until numbers told the truth about barns. A scouring plant thermometer kept moist was gospel in small print. Colleagues still mention a scouring plant thermometer kept moist.

She and George married in 1975 and raised three children without needing an audience. After George's death in 2018, she held to quiet habits-coffee before dawn, a tended yard, a voice on the phone that still checked in.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. She preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Akron was home enough that she never rehearsed an introduction. The garden will come up next spring without being told.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A quiet remembrance in Akron. Those who wish may give to a neighborhood library, food pantry, or workers' aid fund instead of flowers.
