

Nadia Farah Thibault

February 11, 1954 - September 2, 2026

Raleigh, North Carolina

Nadia Farah Thibault died in Raleigh on September 2, 2026. She was 72. Born in Raleigh on February 11, 1954, into a Lebanese-Franco household that treated work as a language. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She counted, labeled, and double-checked with a care that kept wards safe. A pill-count tray polished smooth was her quiet instrument. Colleagues still mention a pill-count tray polished smooth.

She married Omar in 1981. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Omar died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Raleigh, among streets she never needed to explain. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Raleigh with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
