

Naomi Ruth Pequinot

August 9, 1928 - December 29, 2025

Kalamazoo, Michigan

Kalamazoo lost Naomi Ruth Pequinot on December 29, 2025. She was 97. Born on August 9, 1928 and raised among Dutch-American manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She worked beaters that smelled of pulp and payday. A beater room apron clip opened more than doors; it opened trust. Colleagues still mention a beater room apron clip.

In 1954 she married William. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and two children walked to school in weather that did not care. When William died in 2018, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a jumper cable offered before the tow truck was dialed. She preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Kalamazoo was home enough that she never rehearsed an introduction. The chair by the window still holds the shape of a habit.

Services

Services in Kalamazoo will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
