

Ngozi Grace Okoro

July 14, 1957 - August 25, 2026

Honolulu, Hawaii

Ngozi Grace Okoro died in Honolulu on August 25, 2026. She was 69. Born on July 14, 1957, with Nigerian-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She treated injections and bedside manners as the same craft. Patients kept the calm she modeled; students kept her laminated card. Colleagues still mention a laminated dosage card in her purse.

She married Chidi in 1982. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Chidi died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a porch light left on for anyone walking home late. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Honolulu, among streets she never needed to explain. The garden will come up next spring without being told.

Services

A memorial gathering in Honolulu with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
