

Niels Erik Adebayo

January 16, 1950 - August 28, 2026

Provo, Utah

Niels Erik Adebayo died in Provo on August 28, 2026. He was 76. Born on January 16, 1950, into a Nigerian-Danish household that treated work as a language. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He tracked cars the way some people track weather. A punch-clock key on a ring opened more than doors; it opened trust. Colleagues still mention a punch clock key on a ring.

He married Kirsten in 1975. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Kirsten died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Provo, among streets he never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

A memorial gathering in Provo with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
