

Niels Erik Ivanov

January 16, 1950 - August 28, 2026

Ogden, Utah

Niels Erik Ivanov died in Ogden on August 28, 2026. He was 76. Born on January 16, 1950, with Danish-Russian roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He tracked cars the way some people track weather. A punch-clock key on a ring opened more than doors; it opened trust. Colleagues still mention a punch clock key on a ring.

He married Kirsten in 1972. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Kirsten died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember covered dishes that arrived without a speech. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Ogden, among streets he never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Ogden with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
