

Niels Erik Quillen

January 17, 1950 - August 28, 2026
Ogden, Utah

Niels Erik Quillen died in Ogden on August 28, 2026. He was 76. Born in Ogden on January 17, 1950, raised among Danish-American manners that never needed a speech. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He tracked cars the way some people track weather. A punch-clock key on a ring opened more than doors; it opened trust. Colleagues still mention a punch clock key on a ring.

He married Kirsten in 1974. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Kirsten died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember coffee offered before questions. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Ogden, among streets he never needed to explain. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

Services

A memorial gathering in Ogden with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
