

Norman Allen Shepardson

July 2, 1950 - August 12, 2026

Pawtucket, Rhode Island

Norman Allen Shepardson died in Pawtucket on August 12, 2026. He was 76. He was born on July 2, 1950 in a English-American family that measured love in finished chores. From the start, he treated promises like tools: keep them sharp, do not lend them lightly.

He mixed batches until sand became something windows could trust. A batch formula card in plastic outlasted three shifts of hurry. Colleagues still mention a batch formula card in plastic.

He married Nancy in 1972. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised one son and three daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Nancy died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who swept the sidewalk past the property line when weather had been unfair. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Pawtucket, among streets he never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Pawtucket with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
