Oscar Lee Griesemer

March 19, 1951 - November 9, 2025
Savannah, Georgia

Oscar Lee Griesemer of Savannah died on November 9, 2025 at the age of 74. Born in Savannah on March 19, 1951, into a Mexican-American household that treated work as a language. He learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

He set fires that turned clay into something walls could trust. A kiln fire setter poker wrapped preferred work over speeches. Colleagues still mention a kiln fire setter poker wrapped.

He married Irene in 1973. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Irene died in 2018, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Savannah, among streets he never needed to explain. The key is still under the same brick.

Services

A memorial gathering in Savannah with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
