

Oscar Lee Sensenig

September 13, 1930 - May 18, 2025

Spartanburg, South Carolina

In Spartanburg, on May 18, 2025, Oscar Lee Sensenig died at 94. Born in Spartanburg on September 13, 1930, into a Mexican-American household that treated work as a language. Young, he understood that quiet competence outlasts loud plans.

He striped roads that strangers would trust without knowing his name. A stripe crew paint tip kit meant the station would not guess. Colleagues still mention a stripe crew paint tip kit.

In 1953 he married Dorothy. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and two daughters walked to school in weather that did not care. When Dorothy died in 2018, he kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a porch light left on for anyone walking home late. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Spartanburg, among streets he never needed to explain. The chair by the window still holds the shape of a habit.

Services

Services in Spartanburg will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
