

Phyllis Faye Eisenhower

March 26, 1947 - July 9, 2025

Springfield, Massachusetts

In Springfield, on July 9, 2025, Phyllis Faye Eisenhower died at 78. Born in Springfield on March 26, 1947, into a Irish-American household that treated work as a language. Early on, she decided that a paycheck and a handshake should weigh the same.

She picked cold rooms that carried other people's mornings. A cold storage picker checklist yellowed but legible outlasted three managers. Colleagues still mention a cold storage picker checklist yellowed.

In 1970 she married William. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and a daughter and two sons walked to school in weather that did not care. When William died in 2018, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a porch light left on for anyone walking home late. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Springfield, among streets she never needed to explain. The lunch pail still waits by the back door.

Services

Services in Springfield will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
