

Phyllis Faye Hunsicker

April 27, 1942 - August 24, 2024

Dubuque, Iowa

Phyllis Faye Hunsicker, 82, of Dubuque, died on August 24, 2024. She was born on April 27, 1942 in a Portuguese-American family that measured love in finished chores. Young, she understood that quiet competence outlasts loud plans.

She clipped veneer that would hold other people's years. A veneer clipper knife sheath oiled was her preferred tool. Colleagues still mention a veneer clipper knife sheath oiled.

In 1965 she married Walter. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and two sons walked to school in weather that did not care. When Walter died in 2017, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember someone who knew every child's name on the block. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Dubuque, among streets she never needed to explain. The calendar still has a circle on payday.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

Services in Dubuque will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
