

Ruby Nell Stanback

May 8, 1936 - June 18, 2026

Valdosta, Georgia

Ruby Nell Stanback of Valdosta died on June 18, 2026 at the age of 90. Born on May 8, 1936, with Cherokee-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

She led a floor that smelled of piecework and care. A shelling grade paddle wiped clean taught apprentices that shortcuts show. Colleagues still mention a shelling grade paddle wiped clean.

She married James in 1958. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised three daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After James died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Valdosta, on streets that already knew her pace. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

What remains is not a legend but a practice: showing up, keeping a promise, leaving a place better than you found it. Her life was the kind America is built from and too often forgets to name.

Services

A memorial gathering in Valdosta with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
