

Samuel Ira Eisenberg

February 14, 1944 - August 21, 2026

Fresno, California

Samuel Ira Eisenberg died in Fresno on August 21, 2026. He was 82. Born on February 14, 1944, with Jewish American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He rubbed stain into wood until color became character. A can labeled by hand sat on his bench; he could match a customer's memory of a table. Colleagues still mention a can of stain labeled by hand.

He married Ruth in 1969. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Ruth died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Fresno, among streets he never needed to explain. The chair by the window still holds the shape of a habit.

Services

A memorial gathering in Fresno with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
