

Sofia Isabel Amundsen

May 18, 1952 - August 11, 2026

Green Bay, Wisconsin

Sofia Isabel Amundsen died in Green Bay on August 11, 2026. She was 74. Born on May 18, 1952, into a Norwegian-American household that treated work as a language. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She fed students who forgot to eat and faculty who forgot manners. A bent soup ladle was her scepter. Colleagues still mention a soup ladle bent from decades.

She married Miguel in 1977. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Miguel died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who knew every child's name on the block. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Green Bay, among streets she never needed to explain. The chair by the window still holds the shape of a habit.

Services

A memorial gathering in Green Bay with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
