

Stanislaw Jan Zajkowski

December 3, 1938 - August 30, 2026

Hartford, Connecticut

Stanislaw Jan Zajkowski died in Hartford on August 30, 2026. He was 87. Born on December 3, 1938, into a Polish-American household that treated work as a language. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He rode cars through prairie wind and winter. A lantern polished every Sunday was ritual; the railroad was a church with steel pews. Colleagues still mention a lantern polished every Sunday.

He married Helena in 1963. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Helena died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Hartford, among streets he never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

A memorial gathering in Hartford with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
