

Stanislaw Anna Zieminski

May 16, 1943 - August 2, 2026

Erie, Pennsylvania

Stanislaw Anna Zieminski died in Erie on August 2, 2026. She was 83. Born on May 16, 1943, raised among Polish-American manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She kept scrubs moving like a second bloodstream. A cart that never tipped was her pride; cleanliness was how she fought infection without a white coat. Colleagues still mention a cart of folded scrubs that never tipped.

She married Jozef in 1969. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Jozef died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Erie, among streets she never needed to explain. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Erie with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
