

Sun Hee Qian

April 13, 1957 - August 29, 2026

Kahului, Hawaii

Sun Hee Qian died in Kahului on August 29, 2026. She was 69. Born in Kahului on April 13, 1957, with Korean-Chinese roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She pressed suits and school clothes with the same care. A press machine tuned by ear was her signature; neighbors trusted her with Sundays. Colleagues still mention a press machine she tuned by ear.

She married Min in 1981. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two daughters through public schools and ordinary weather. After Min died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Kahului, among streets she never needed to explain. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Kahului with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
