

Therese Marie Abercrombie

September 30, 1952 - August 16, 2026

Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Therese Marie Abercrombie died in Baton Rouge on August 16, 2026. She was 73. Born on September 30, 1952, raised among Cajun French manners that never needed a speech. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She fed students who forgot to eat and faculty who forgot manners. A bent soup ladle was her scepter. Colleagues still mention a soup ladle bent from decades.

She married Etienne in 1977. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Etienne died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who knew every child's name on the block. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Baton Rouge, among streets she never needed to explain. The porch still expects a returning step.

Services

A memorial gathering in Baton Rouge with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
