

Timothy Patrick Braithwait

April 16, 1929 - July 7, 2026

Juneau, Alaska

Friends in Juneau remember Timothy Patrick Braithwait, who died on July 7, 2026 at 97. Born on April 16, 1929 and raised among Irish-American manners that never needed a speech. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He worked decks that argued with weather and schedules. A tug deckhand line splice kit preferred work over speeches. Colleagues still mention a tug deckhand line splice kit.

He married Mary in 1954. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Mary died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Juneau, among streets he never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Juneau with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
