

Vaclav Josef Kolar

August 15, 1946 - August 31, 2026

Frederick, Maryland

Vaclav Josef Kolar died in Frederick on August 31, 2026. He was 80. Born in Frederick on August 15, 1946, with Czech-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He built cars on a line that measured people in stations. A union pin on his winter coat was biography. Colleagues still mention a union pin on a winter coat.

He married Helena in 1970. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Helena died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember coffee offered before questions. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Frederick, among streets he never needed to explain. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Frederick with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
