

Vernon Lee Quispe

September 18, 1939 - August 27, 2026

Columbus, Georgia

Vernon Lee Quispe died in Columbus on August 27, 2026. He was 86. Born in Columbus on September 18, 1939, with Andean-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He taught drills until habit replaced panic. A hard hat stickered with training dates was biography written in vinyl. Colleagues still mention a hard hat stickered with training dates.

He married Pearl in 1966. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised three children through public schools and ordinary weather. After Pearl died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a rake leaned against a shared fence after a storm. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Columbus, among streets he never needed to explain. The extra coffee is still in the thermos.

Services

A memorial gathering in Columbus with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
