

Wanda Krystyna Urbanski

February 18, 1945 - September 8, 2026

Flint, Michigan

Wanda Krystyna Urbanski died in Flint on September 8, 2026. She was 81. Born on February 18, 1945, with Polish-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She built cars on a line that measured people in stations. A union pin on her winter coat was biography. Colleagues still mention a union pin on a winter coat.

She married Jan in 1967. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Jan died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember someone who swept the sidewalk past the property line when weather had been unfair. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Flint, among streets she never needed to explain. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

A memorial gathering in Flint with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
