

Wanda Krystyna Zajac

October 7, 1942 - September 7, 2026

Idaho Falls, Idaho

Wanda Krystyna Zajac died in Idaho Falls on September 7, 2026. She was 83. Born on October 7, 1942, with Polish-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She balanced books in green ink that did not forgive fiction. Farmers trusted her totals; she trusted coffee and early mornings. Colleagues still mention a ledger with green ink totals.

She married Piotr in 1964. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Piotr died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Idaho Falls, among streets she never needed to explain. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Idaho Falls with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
