

Wanda Maria Jankowski

April 9, 1946 - September 7, 2026

Boise, Idaho

Wanda Maria Jankowski died in Boise on September 7, 2026. She was 80. Born on April 9, 1946, with Polish-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. She learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

She balanced books in green ink that did not forgive fiction. Farmers trusted her totals; she trusted coffee and early mornings. Colleagues still mention a ledger with green ink totals.

She married Piotr in 1971. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son and a daughter through public schools and ordinary weather. After Piotr died in 2019, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. She liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. She died in Boise, among streets she never needed to explain. The tools are still hung where a hand can find them in the dark.

Services

A memorial gathering in Boise with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
