

Wanda Nell Blosser

April 27, 1948 - June 16, 2025

Tucson, Arizona

Family and neighbors in Tucson mark the death of Wanda Nell Blosser on June 16, 2025. She was 77. Born on April 27, 1948 and raised among English-American manners that never needed a speech. She learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

She folded mornings into stacks that left before travelers woke fully. A flatwork folder chalk stub taught that small mercies matter. Colleagues still mention a flatwork folder chalk stub.

She married Edward in 1973. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a daughter and two sons through public schools and ordinary weather. After Edward died in 2018, she kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember the radio low on a Saturday while repairs got done. Mornings were her favorite shift at home. She died in Tucson, on streets that already knew her pace. The calendar still has a circle on payday.

Services

A memorial gathering in Tucson with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
