

Wanda Nell Torbett

June 28, 1944 - October 21, 2025

Duluth, Minnesota

In Duluth, on October 21, 2025, Wanda Nell Torbett died at 81. Born on June 28, 1944, with English-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. From the start, she treated promises like tools: keep them sharp, do not lend them lightly.

She filled trays that had to become product before weather changed its mind. A mushroom tray chalk stub decided what left for markets. Colleagues still mention a mushroom tray chalk stub.

In 1967 she married Edward. The marriage was not a speech; it was groceries, repairs, and two sons and a daughter walked to school in weather that did not care. When Edward died in 2018, she kept what still worked: the early walk, the small garden, the call on Sundays.

Neighbors remember a porch light left on for anyone walking home late. She preferred the hour before a town fully wakes. Duluth was home enough that she never rehearsed an introduction. The recipe card is still stained in the useful places.

Services

Services in Duluth will be simple: stories, coffee, and the names of people who showed up. Flowers optional; support for a local clinic or trade scholarship preferred.
