

Werner Hans Brauchli

July 4, 1942 - August 24, 2026

Dallas, Texas

Werner Hans Brauchli died in Dallas on August 24, 2026. He was 84. Born in Dallas on July 4, 1942, raised among Swiss-American manners that never needed a speech. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He measured loss without measuring people as numbers. A briefcase worn at the corners carried frankness and a spare pen. Colleagues still mention a briefcase worn at the corners.

He married Helga in 1965. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Helga died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Dallas, among streets he never needed to explain. The key is still under the same brick.

Services

A memorial gathering in Dallas with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
