

Werner Hans Guagliardo

July 4, 1941 - August 24, 2026

Houston, Texas

Werner Hans Guagliardo died in Houston on August 24, 2026. He was 85. Born in Houston on July 4, 1941, raised among Italian-Swiss manners that never needed a speech. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He measured loss without measuring people as numbers. A briefcase worn at the corners carried frankness and a spare pen. Colleagues still mention a briefcase worn at the corners.

He married Helga in 1967. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised a son through public schools and ordinary weather. After Helga died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember quiet help with a stuck mailbox or a heavy trash can. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Houston, among streets he never needed to explain. The radio is still tuned to the station that played while work got done.

Services

A memorial gathering in Houston with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
