

Willard Allen Troyer

July 27, 1933 - February 19, 2026

Marquette, Michigan

Family and neighbors in Marquette mark the death of Willard Allen Troyer on February 19, 2026. He was 92. Born in Marquette on July 27, 1933; Indian-American cooking and payday thrift set the tone of the house. He learned that neighborhoods remember who helps without being asked.

He pressed uniforms for badges and luck with equal courtesy. A press cloth marked with pins meant the day belonged to accuracy. Colleagues still mention a press cloth marked with pins.

He married Martha in 1958. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised two children through public schools and ordinary weather. After Martha died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember the radio low on a Saturday while repairs got done. Mornings were his favorite shift at home. He died in Marquette, on streets that already knew his pace. The work gloves still keep the shape of a grip.

Services

A memorial gathering in Marquette with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
