

Yusuf Hassan Ibrahim

February 27, 1951 - August 22, 2026

Phoenix, Arizona

Yusuf Hassan Ibrahim died in Phoenix on August 22, 2026. He was 75. Born in Phoenix on February 27, 1951, with Somali-American roots that shaped the table more than the flag. He learned early that a day is something you finish, not something you wait for.

He kept cabs honest through desert heat and night shifts. A socket set labeled in two languages meant anyone on the crew could finish the job. Colleagues still mention a socket set labeled in two languages.

He married Amina in 1974. They kept a house that stayed modest when the neighborhood did not. They raised three children through public schools and ordinary weather. After Amina died in 2019, he kept the routines that still made sense: the walk, the garden, the Sunday call.

Neighbors remember a wave from the driveway that meant you were seen. He liked early mornings before the heat or the noise. He died in Phoenix, among streets he never needed to explain. The garden will come up next spring without being told.

Services

A memorial gathering in Phoenix with coffee afterward. In lieu of flowers, a gift to a local workers' fund, clinic, or neighborhood library is welcome.
