

Jackson County refuge history order, September 25, 2026

Public notice. Jackson County, Colorado, has a new federal order for history work on a wildlife refuge. On September 25, 2026, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service recorded delivery order 140FS226F0158 for $33,970. The awarding department is the Department of the Interior. The recipient is ERO Resources Corporation. The place of performance is Walden, in Jackson County. The award text says the work is historic resource documentation and evaluation at Arapaho National Wildlife Refuge. That means writing down and reviewing old places or objects on the refuge. This is a new delivery order. The modification number is 0. This notice does not list a street address. Read the award on USAspending before you rely on it.