The Nye County Park and Recreation Advisory Board meets at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, 2026, at the Dan Sweeney Public Safety Building in Round Mountain. It will review the Carvers Arena and Recreation Center block grant, maintenance needs, arena scheduling, a possible change to the county code that sets up the board, and updates from Smoky Valley shooting and horse clubs. Public comment is up to three minutes.

The Nye County Park and Recreation Advisory Board meets at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6, 2026, at the Dan Sweeney Public Safety Building in Round Mountain, in Big Smoky Valley. The board's chair is Holly Merritt, the vice chair is David Harris and the secretary is Tim Bohannon.

This is an advisory board. It makes recommendations to the Nye County Board of Commissioners.

Public comment is open for any topic, on or off the agenda, at the start and end of the meeting. Each person gets three minutes. People may also speak for three minutes on each action item, or send written comments.

What is on the agenda

Carvers Arena and Recreation Center: the status of its Community Development Block Grant, including how much funding was approved and what has been spent so far. Also general maintenance needs and requests for the center, and arena scheduling, policies or procedures.

County code: a possible recommendation to the commissioners to amend Nye County Code Chapter 2.16, which sets up the Park and Recreation Advisory Board.

Youth program: compliance protocols for "AB501 O-REC" related to the youth program, as worded on the agenda.

Club updates: the Smoky Valley Lead Wasters, the Smoky Valley Clay Crushers and the Smoky Valley Horseman's Club.

Budget: comments and a recommendation on the general maintenance budget for Nye County. Also: approving the Sept. 1, 2026, minutes, any emergency items, and setting the next meeting date.

Accessibility

People with a disability who need help to attend are asked to contact the board, care of the chair, at the Dan Sweeney Public Safety Building before the meeting. The agenda lists the contact details. Support documents, if any, are available at the same building, care of the secretary.
