The Oregon State Legislature's Facility Services team is recruiting a Capitol Custodian (requisition REQ-207039). The hiring agency named on the posting is the Legislative Administration Committee. The posting opened Oct. 13, 2026, and the application deadline is Oct. 27, 2026; the announcement closes at 11:59 PM on the close date.

Pay and schedule: the posted salary range is $3,233-$4,848. The posting says this is base salary without Public Employees Retirement System (PERS) contributions; PERS-eligible employees have their salary increased by 6.95%, and 6% is a mandatory employee PERS contribution. It is a full-time, limited-duration position beginning in December 2026 with an expected end date of June 30, 2027. The schedule is swing shift, Monday through Friday, 4:00 pm-1:30 am.

Location: on-site at the Oregon State Capitol, 900 Court Street NE, Salem, Oregon. The posting lists remote work as not available.

Duties listed on the posting include general cleaning inside and outside the building, minor maintenance and repairs, restroom cleaning and restocking, carpet and upholstery cleaning, floor care on concrete, tile, linoleum, marble and wood, window and handrail cleaning, polishing brass, equipment maintenance and recycling. The posting says the job requires climbing ladders, working at heights and lifting 20 pounds.

Eligibility: applicants must show a high school diploma or GED; the posting says an equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered. A résumé and cover letter are required, and applications without both may not be reviewed. The Legislature does not offer visa sponsorship and uses E-Verify. Qualifying veterans and disabled veterans receive preference under ORS 408.225, 408.230 and 408.235.

How to apply: apply only through the official State of Oregon Workday posting linked below (also listed on the Legislature's employment page). Current state employees apply through the Workday Career app. Questions go to the contact named on the posting: Aimee Steketee, Human Resource Analyst, aimee.steketee@oregonlegislature.gov, (503) 986-1373.
