

Sullivan County park tree-work order, August 19, 2026

Public notice. Sullivan County, New Hampshire, has a new federal purchase for park tree work. On August 19, 2026, the National Park Service recorded purchase order 140P4326P0030 for $28,497. The awarding department is the Department of the Interior. The recipient is Gallagher Tree Service, LLC. The place of performance is Cornish, in Sullivan County. The award text says the work is professional arborist services at Saint-Gaudens National Historical Park. An arborist is a person trained to care for trees. This is a new order. The modification number is 0. This notice does not give a street address. It does not list which trees will be worked on. Read the award on USAspending before you rely on it.